

ladies gave a very merry trolley ride on Wednesday evening. Their guests included a number of their university lady friends. The fraternities do not give parties nowadays entirely en famille.

Miss Anna Dick, modiste, has moved her rooms to 1318 O street. She has just returned from the east with a line of imported novelties and ideas.

Prof. and Mrs. Richards will entertain a number of their friends this evening in honor of Mrs. Richard's sister who is visiting with her.

The young ladies of the Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity gave a very pretty afternoon tea at the home of Miss Emily Weeks, last Saturday afternoon from three until six. Besides the members of the fraternity a number of their friends were invited in to sip tea with them. The members present were: The Misses Farwell, Grace Oakley, Laura Houtz, Mae Burr, Jessica Morgan; Messrs C. Y. Smith, Fred White; Mesdames F. W. Smith, L. W. Marshall; Visitors, Messrs Fred Houtz and L. W. Marshall. Fred Houtz, Harry Lansing and Homer Honeywell were voted in as new members.

W. A. Grimes of the Burlington storehouse, and wife have returned from Minnesota.

Earnest Haughton has returned to Lincoln, after a brief business trip over the state.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Smith of Beatrice, came up to the City Tuesday, to witness the McKinley parade and call on friends.

Mrs. Mulford who has been the guest of Mrs. F. W. Brown and M. C. L. Burr for a few weeks has returned to her home in Omaha.

Mrs. McKaig, wife of Dr. McKaig of Hastings has been visiting friends in the city the past week.

TO SAVE DOCTOR'S BILLS.
Use "Garland" Stoves and Ranges. For sale by Rudge & Morris.

A profitable as well as very pleasant evening of the Mandolin Club was held at the home of Miss Henrietta Hollowbush on Monday.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Miss Bessie Osborn, on last Saturday afternoon at her home, 1230 F st. Those present were: Maggie Skinner, Mollie Bird, Dora Bird Pansy Van Fleet, Etta Cassidy, Ora Cassidy, Judson Cassidy, Hazel Moore, Bessie Osborn, Percy Osborn, Ray Moore.

Mrs. J. C. Bell has just opened with her stock of hair goods and cosmetics. Embroidery Silks in holders, the best. Free lessons given. Stamping done.

Mr. E. B. Woodward, son of Councilman W. A. Woodward, left for Ann Arbor, Mich., yesterday to continue his medical studies.

Mr. Alfred Morris Bagby, who is quite a celebrity and leader in the literary and musical society of New York city and who is author of that beautiful story, "Miss Trauemerei," stopped in Lincoln this week. Miss Marie Hoover entertained him. Mr. Bagby was with a party on a private car bound for the Black Hills.

The first society event of the season was Mrs. Lambertson's and Mrs. D. A. Campbell's "at home" on Thursday at the formers' home, on 17th and G. Over a hundred guests listened to Mrs. Wurzburg play the harp. Those who have heard Mrs. Wurzburg and seen her hands touch the strings of a harp which in itself, before its strings are vibrated, is tradition, poetry, patriotism, know it for an unique sensation. Mrs. Elia W. Peatie who has become famous in the literary world read a portion of the fourth chapter of "As you like it." After this she read "How Jacque came to the Forest of Arden." A clever original sketch full of beautiful sentiment and which imitated Shakespear, s onomatopoeic words. She is gifted with a pleasing voice and manner. Miss Miner made her debut in musical circles by rendering artistically Grieg's "Folk Songs" and Godard's Second Mazurka. The interior of this home which in itself and its furnishings is a specimen of artistic loveliness, was on this occasion all the more attractive with its graceful bunches of roses. American Beauties made the reception-room gorgeous, while tea-roses lent their fragrance to the dining room. In the reception hall beautiful palms filled every nook and corner.

Mrs. F. M. Hall assisted by inviting the guests to the refreshment room which was decorated profusely in pink and white. There were to be found no other roses than the graceful La France. For the Misses Eleanor Raymond, Maud Oakley and Sadie Burnham appeared especially pretty and fresh in their dainty summer gowns. Probably this is the last party of the year where the guests will wear Summer gowns of organdie, swiss muslin and lawn. Although mixed in with the frou frou of Summer costumes one heard the characteristic swish of the heavier Fall silks and wools.

Prize Story

$25.00.

On Monday, November 30, "The Courier" company will give $15.00 to the author of the best short story handed in before October 31, 1896, and $10.00 to the author of the second best. The story must not contain more than 2,500 words.

Sutton & Hollowbush have invented a cough drop. They call it the S. & H. Sutton & Hollowbush, and it is a good one. Stop and get one on your way to the theatre. It will save you a spasm of coughing.

Mrs. Hortan H. Boal who has been visiting with Mrs. Dr. Wood a few days the past week left for North Platte Tuesday. She will return with her father Col. W. F. Cody on the fourteenth of this month when she will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Ladd.

Mrs. Luke has moved her millinery stock from 1321 O to 139 South 12th. Nice pattern hats now being displayed.

Captain R. O. Phillips' nephew, Walter Shelley Phillips has written a number of stories founded on the folk lore of the north Pacific Coast Indians. He has illustrated them himself. His publisher says that the stories are as good as Kipling's. Mr. Phillips lives at Havlock, Nebraska. He is an inventor of several machines—artist, author, inventor—he is almost as versatile as that man Smith—F. Hopkinson—civil engineer, author and artist.

Dr. W. R. Halstead came to the city Wednesday to fill his position as the new pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church.

Mrs. Putnam and Miss Angie Saunders returned Tuesday from their summer spent mostly at Asbury Park. Miss Florence who was with them, remained at Utica, N. Y. where she will attend a young ladies seminary.

Last Saturday evening the Phi Delta Thetas gave their first hop of the season in fraternity hall on O and Tenth. This is one of the oldest fraternities here. Their rooms are well adapted for dancing. Some of those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Emery Hardy, Misses Helen Welch, Stella Elliot, Sadie Burnham, Bianche Garten, Georgia Camp, Anna Broady, Ellen Gere, Frances Gere, Schwartz, Eleanor Raymond, Clara Parks, Morraine and Von Mansfield. Messrs. Ralph and Avery Haggard, Tom Wing, Will Raymond, John Jones, Bert Whedon, Silas Lyman, Ralph Mueller, Harry Oury, Davenport, M. Von Mansfield.

A very happy event in East Lincoln society was the wedding of C. E. Tingley and Miss Mabel Barton, which took place on Wednesday noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos M. Barton, 3140 S street. Mrs. E. J. Burkett played the wedding march while the bride on her father's arm and the groom attended by his brother, E. R. Tingley, entered the parlors where the ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The groom is well known in Lincoln having lived here the greater part of his life. He is a graduate of the law school and took a masters degree at the state university. The bride is a very charming and attractive young lady. Mr. and Mrs. Tingley have a large circle of friends who congratulate them and wish them happiness in their walk of life.

Dress-Making.

LADIES who appreciate Stylish Outfits and First-Class Work are invited to call at our Dressmaking Department.

Mr. Childers has charge, with Mrs. Severance as first assistant.

Miller & Paine.

O. J. KING.

Family Grocer

Wholesale and Retail.

1126 N STREET, - LINCOLN, NEB.

Stock purchased direct from the manufacturer. We buy in carload lots.

Quality considered, we claim to be the Lowest Priced Grocery in Lincoln.

CALL : AND : INSPECT : OUR : STOCK.
WE SELL FOR CASH.

Three Opinions:

"The CHICAGO RECORD is a model newspaper in every sense of the word."—Harrisburg (Pa.) Call.

"There is no paper published in America that so nearly approaches the true journalistic ideal as The CHICAGO RECORD."—From "Newspaperdom" (New York).

"I have come to the firm conclusion, after a long test and after a wide comparison with the journals of many cities and countries, that The CHICAGO RECORD comes as near being the ideal daily journal as we are for some time likely to find on these mortal shores."—Prof. J. T. Hatfield in The Evanston (Ill.) Index.

Sold by newsdealers everywhere and subscriptions received by all postmasters. Address THE CHICAGO RECORD, 181 Madison-st.